

LAREDO II WIDE SEATING LEATHER RECLINING COLLECTION

Cheers Furniture is a public company, founded in 1992. Their corporate headquarters is located in Macao, China. Their factories are located in the Guangdong Province of China and employ over 8,000 people. They are the largest producer of reclining furniture in the world. Cheers produces high quality yet affordable reclining furniture and specializes in modular sectionals in both leather and fabric. Their company mission statement is simple: “To create the most comfortable, fashionable furniture at value prices.” The company invests in ongoing quality control, external testing and improvement.

MAKE IT YOUR OWN!

The Laredo II leather reclining modular sectional and sofa are stocked in the leather shown. Many other pieces in both extra wide and standard width seating are also stocked. Customize the Laredo II by special order, choosing from other colors. Because Laredo II is completely modular (each seat is a separate piece), you can create the exact configuration you need to suit your room size/shape and seating needs!
